Child Caregiver Resources

Here are some ideas to help plan for back-up childcare:

- Download the Next Door app and see if there's any Parenting or Child Care Co-ops in your area. For example, some neighborhood might have a group of 5 parents hosts the group of kids one day out of each week. This allows each family to have 4 days of childcare without any out of pocket expenses. This may be a great resource to brainstorm with other neighbors or friends in the area who find themselves needing emergency childcare.
- Talk to your manager. More than likely there are many people in the same situation and employers may be more willing to work with you on alternative options such as shifting your work hours or working from home.
- Connect with your colleagues to brainstorm alternative childcare options.
- Reach out to any friends, neighbors, or families with older teenagers or college students. Many school and universities across the country have closed and this may provide an alternate option to have students on break provide childcare.
- Look at website such as Care.com and Sittercity.com, who have caregivers available in many communities across the country who can offer backup care.
- Contact local churches
- Connect with groups such as www.meetup.com
- Look on local Facebook parenting forums
- Search for local online community message boards
